

Saturday 23rd August

Greta Vilidaite

Atmospheric Hills in acrylic

£30

Join multi-award winning landscape painter, Greta Vilidaite for this workshop on conveying dramatic distances and atmosphere in your landscapes. In this workshop you will learn how to loosen up your painting style with painterly brushwork and create atmospheric perspective that draws the viewer in. Greta will also take you through the most important elements of landscape painting; value and temperature, edges and composition. Suitable for all skill levels.

Saturday/Sunday 30th/31st August

ARTFAIR

Our annual Artfair takes place over both floors of the Town Hall. Come along to meet some of our many varied artists, see & hear about their work and perhaps purchase a piece of original artwork for yourself.

Saturday 20th September

Kitty Bellamy

Portraits

£40

Kitty recently impressed on Sky Arts Portrait Artist of the Year and has exhibited with the Royal Institute of Oil Painters in their annual show. Her work aims to evoke an emotional connection between subject and viewer and is frequently described as feeling alive. In this workshop, she will be taking you, step by step, through the process of creating a portrait in oils, though you are free to use any medium of your choice.

Saturday 4th October

Cath Inglis

Portraits in Pastels

£35

A workshop in soft pastel suitable for those with some experience of using pastels. The workshop will begin with a brief demonstration explaining the various techniques used to create a portrait. This is followed with practical work by students using their portrait subject of choice. Catherine will give individual assistance to students as required and you will learn all you need to create a wonderful portrait by the end of our session together.

Saturday 18th October

Paul Talbot-Greaves

Tone in the Landscape

£40

This workshop will illustrate the difference between tone and value whilst highlighting how the two terms inter-relate to form the basic mechanics of colour mixing. The day will begin with a discussion and demonstration of what tones are and how they are easily made to reach the precise colours for your painting. You will also be introduced to techniques that simplify your entire approach to painting. An enlightening day!

Saturday 25th October

Pam Williams

Sunlight Through the Trees

£30

Popular local artist Pam Williams will explain and demonstrate several different techniques for painting sunlight in woodland. This workshop is suitable for beginners (though not absolute beginners) and anyone wishing to improve their skills in watercolours.
